University of Georgia Press. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Renfroe's Christmas, Robert Burch, In this story, Renfroe Madison, who was first introduced in "D.J. s Worst Enemy," is three years older. It is Christmastime, and while Renfroe s spirits are high, he is more conscious than ever of his selfish streak. With the family s worn-out Christmas tree angel--hung by Renfroe on their smokehouse door--acting as his conscience, Renfroe tries half-heartedly to curb his selfishness: Should he have split a 75-cent store credit more evenly instead of buying a 50-cent knife for himself and 25-cent one for his brother D.J.? Should he have given his lasso to three neighbors who got only an apple, an orange, and a candy bar for Christmas? Should he have given his yo-yo to Nutty, a good family friend? Renfroe didn t really enjoy the yo-yo, and Nutty got nothing but clothes for Christmas. Then, a smile from a handicapped boy redeems Renfroe. He spontaneously gives the boy his brand-new Mickey Mouse watch-- the finest thing I ve ever owned myself --because of the happiness it will bring to its recipient.Renfroe s struggle to come to terms with himself is paced by the activities of everyday farm life, as well as by a hilarious Christmas pageant, an experiment to increase milk production by singing carols to the Madisons cows, and a longing for the snow that seldom falls south of Atlanta.".
